

The Murder

It is early evening and the family, friends and associates of the Late Count Blackwell have gathered for dinner and the reading of his will.

The Count's mysterious death occurred just the night before.

His remains were discovered in the library by his wife Elenor (the Countess) around 1 AM. He had been reduced to a puddle of blood and smoking ash.

Recently the Count's safe had been opened and it's contents stolen.

Can you solve this horrific murder and theft?

Charles Hunter Human

Charles is the Blackwell estate gardener and has worked for the family for twenty years.

He has a 17-year-old daughter "Bella" whom he has gone to considerable lengths to shield from the strange and dangerous things that go on at the Manor.

Costume: A farmers outfit, cap and worn clothes.
