

THE MURDER MYSTERY

A skeleton has been dug up at Satis House. The side of its skull bashed in. A very bloody murder indeed.

Its boney fingers clutch a note written years earlier, on the morning of Miss Havishams wedding.

Could this be the fiancé who never arrived at the altar 23 years ago? If not then... who is it?

---

Please familiarize yourself with 4 Christmas carols: Deck the Halls with Boughs of Holly, Jingle Bells, We Wish you a Merry Christmas, and The Twelve days of Christmas.

YOUR PLAYERS PROFILE IS

Sarah Gamp

*From Dickens
Martin Chuzzlewit*

Mrs Gamp is one of Dickens more comical characters. An alcoholic, gin guzzling, badly trained nurse and midwife.

If she can get past her alcohol damaged memory and remember the past, she might add valuable information to the murder mystery.

---

Costume: A long skirt and blouse, boots and a shawl. A Victorian bonnet, small medical bag with instruments inside (including a flask of gin). And always a black umbrella.

THE SUSPECTS

- Vincent Crummles
- Lady Dedlock
- Mr Dorrit
- Estella
- Fagin
- Sarah Gamp
- Miss Havisham
- Little Nell
- Phillip Pirip (Pip)
- Ebenezer Scrooge