

The Murder

It is early evening and the family, friends and associates of the Late Count Blackwell have gathered for dinner and the reading of his will.

The Count's mysterious death occurred just the night before.

His remains were discovered in the library by his wife Elenor (the Countess) around 1 AM. He had been reduced to a puddle of blood and smoking ash.

Recently the Count's safe had been opened and it's contents stolen.

Can you solve this horrific murder and theft?

The Countess Vampire

Countess Eleanor Blackwell is the late Count Blackwell's wife. A rich and glamorous creature of the night.

Costume: Eleanor is an eccentric vampire, and would be covered with jewels, no doubt stolen after killing an unsuspecting jeweler. A tiara (small crown) would be common place on her head. Long painted nails and heavy dark makeup. Use plastic vampire teeth to complete the look.
