

The Murder Mystery

West Egg, 1922.

Beneath the glitter of chandeliers and the clink of crystal, a shocking discovery silences the orchestra, a body has been found floating in the fountain at Gatsby's legendary estate.

The champagne still sparkles, the jazz still plays… but someone at this party is a murderer.

Who among you turned a night of decadence into murder?

YOUR PROFILE:
Nick Carraway

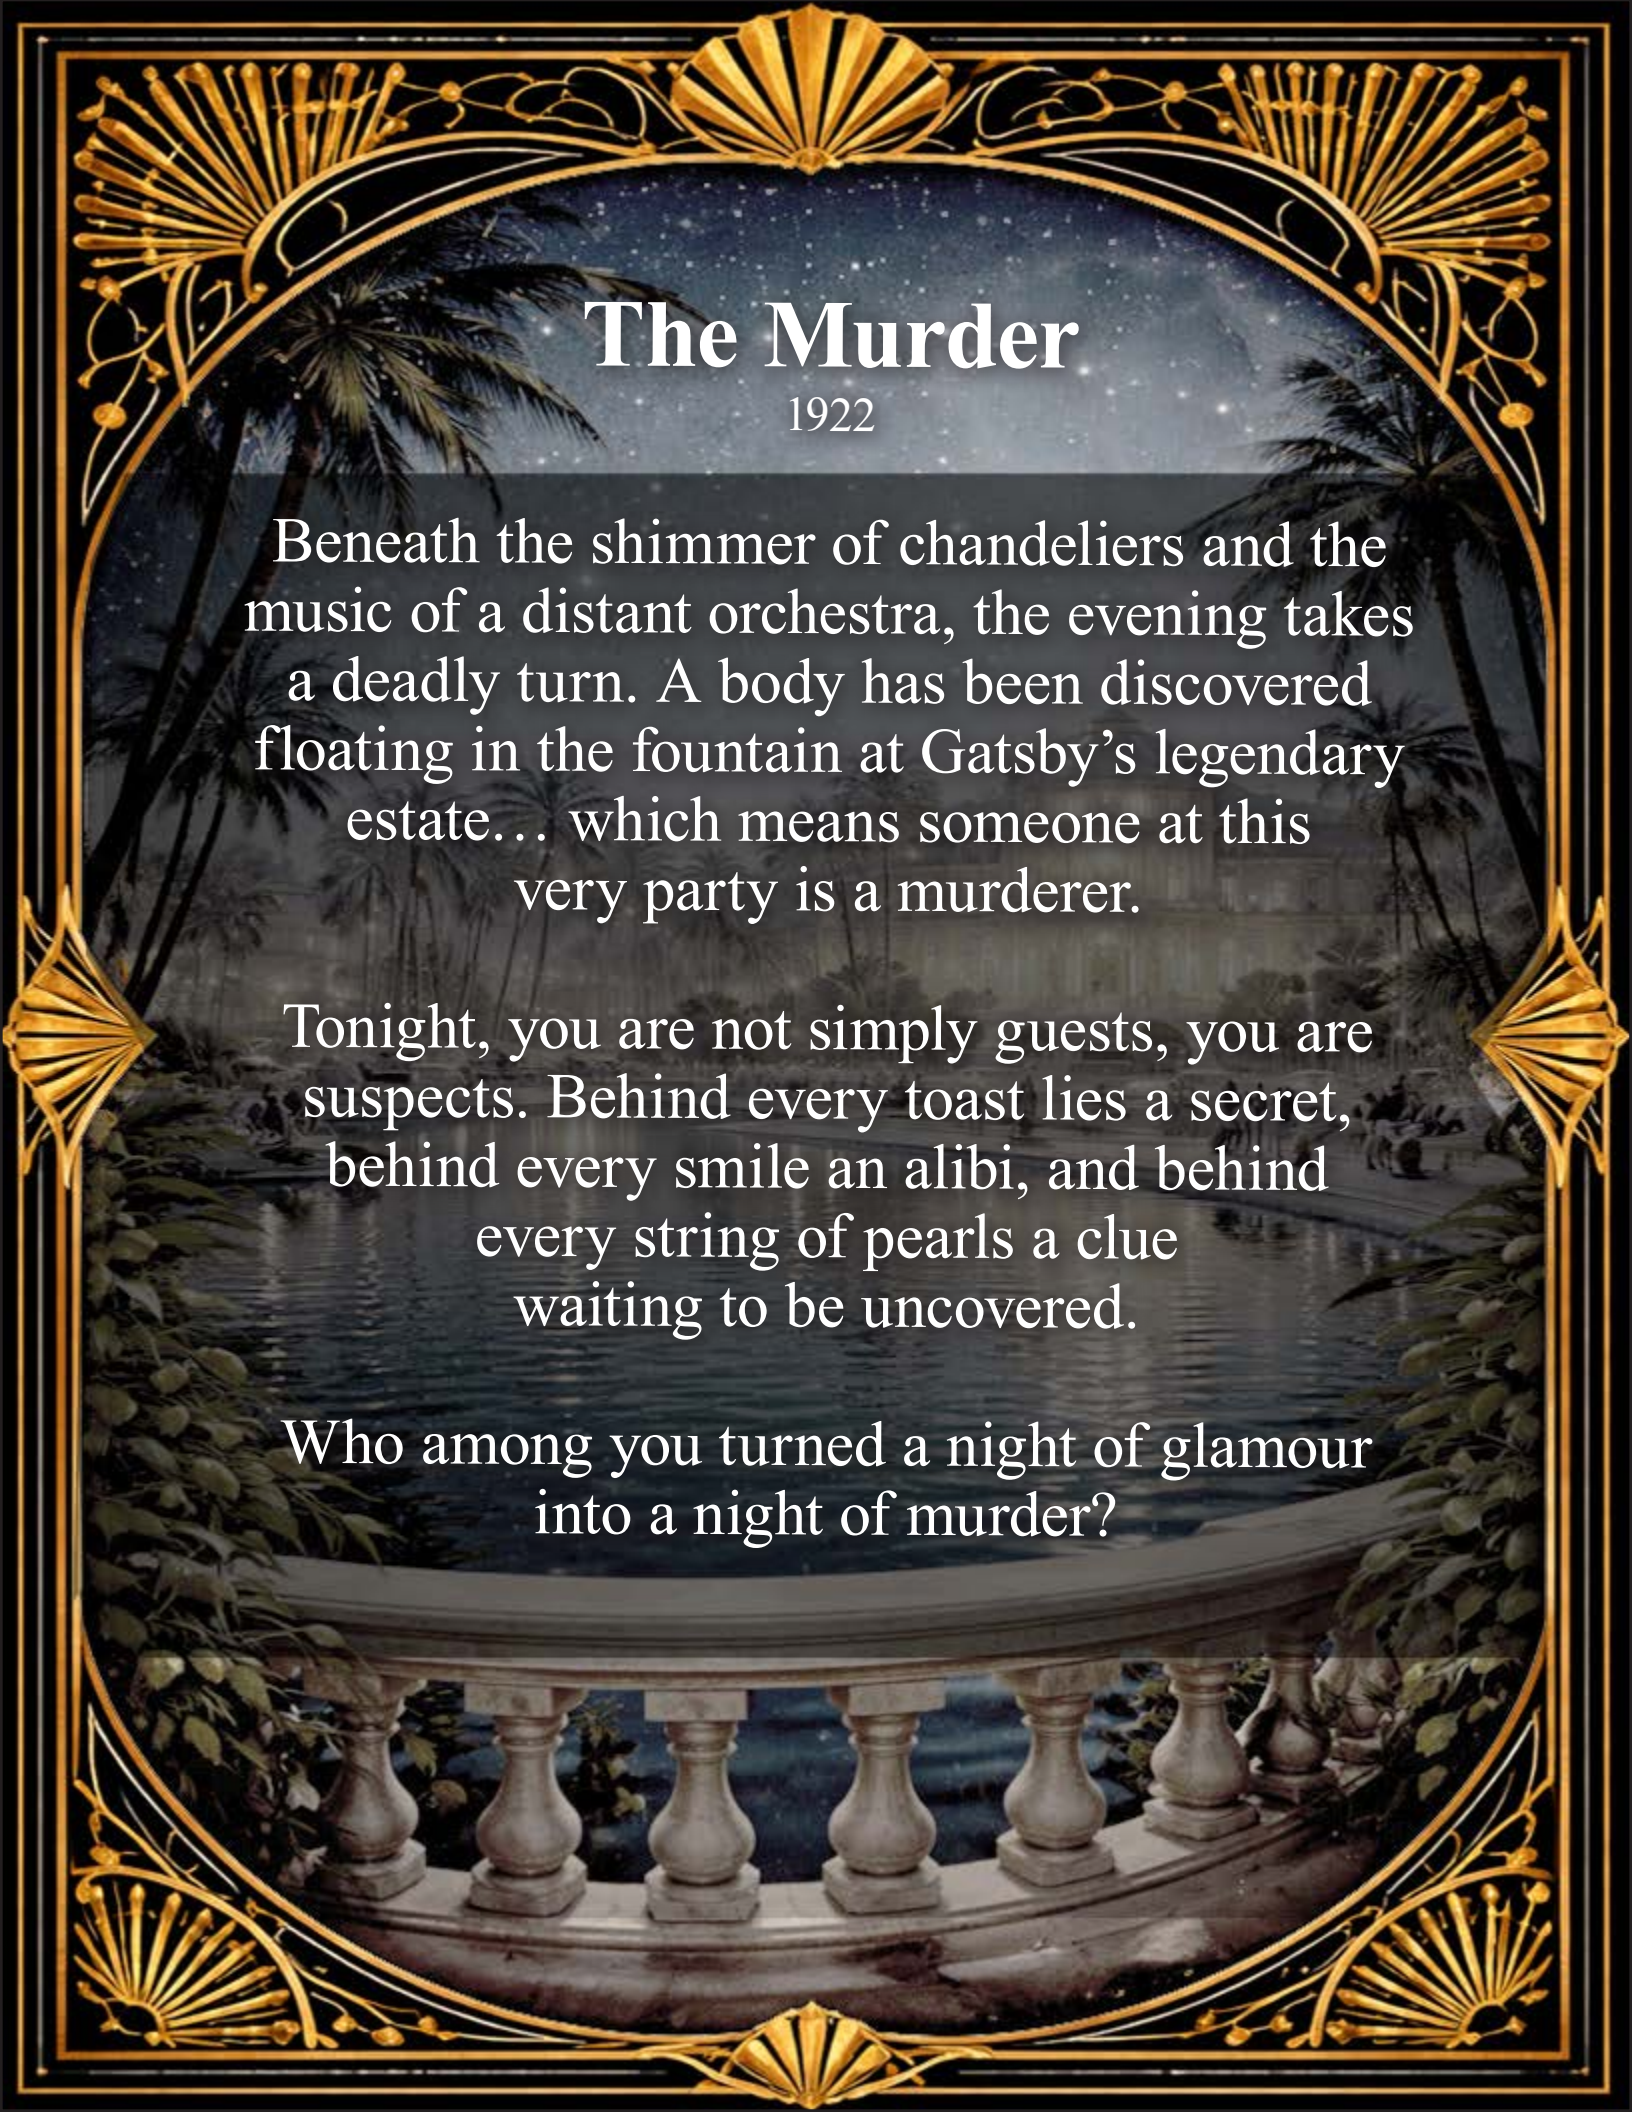

Observant. Reserved. Thoughtful.

He is the cousin to Daisy Buchanan. He is polite, well spoken, and just curious enough to ask the questions others avoid. Nick has an uncanny way of standing exactly where the secrets spill. And on a night interrupted by murder, one must ask… is Nick simply telling the story, or carefully shaping it?

Costume: Wear a classic 1920s suit and boater hat.

The Murder

1922

Beneath the shimmer of chandeliers and the music of a distant orchestra, the evening takes a deadly turn. A body has been discovered floating in the fountain at Gatsby's legendary estate… which means someone at this very party is a murderer.

Tonight, you are not simply guests, you are suspects. Behind every toast lies a secret, behind every smile an alibi, and behind every string of pearls a clue waiting to be uncovered.
