

The Murders

London, 1888.

One by one, women of Whitechapel fell victim to a killer whose cruelty shocked the nation, yet the police were powerless to solve the crime.

Tonight, you are called to pick up the trail. Armed with headlines torn from the press, whispered rumors, and scattered clues, you and your fellow guests must untangle the mystery that baffled Victorian London...

Who was Jack the Ripper!

The Murder Mystery

London, 1888. Gas lamps flicker.
Footsteps echo in narrow alleys.
And somewhere in the shadows,
Jack the Ripper is watching.

Trust no one. Defend your alibi.
Solve the puzzles. By the final candle's burn, one of you will be unmasked as Jack the Ripper.

Dinner, drama, and murder—
served Victorian style.

YOUR PROFILE:

Sherlock Holmes

The world's only consulting detective—Holmes believes no detail is too small for his superior mind. Brilliant, insufferable, and occasionally theatrical, he'll solve the case—then make sure you know you could never have done it without him.

Costume: A long tweed coat, deerstalker hat, waistcoat, and tie or cravat. A magnifying glass and a curved pipe complete the ensemble.

Who committed the murders?

- Sherlock Holmes ..... ☐
- Molly Malone ..... ☐
- Dr. Francis Tumblety .. ☐
- Mrs. Agatha Pottle ..... ☐
- Aaron Kosminski..... ☐
- Matilda Graves ..... ☐
- Charles Lechmere ..... ☐
- Violet Adler ..... ☐

