

The Murder

The body of Mr. Thorpe was discovered decapitated and stuffed in the breakfast room water closet.

A church bulletin was found in his pocket and a swatch of hair wrapped in a handkerchief lay beneath him.

The shock of the murder has quickly spread throughout Rosings Park.

The details are forthcoming, things are not what they seem.

The Murder

The body of Mr. Thorpe was discovered this afternoon decapitated and stuffed in the breakfast room water closet. The murder occurred around midnight.

A church bulletin was found in his pocket and a swatch of hair wrapped in a handkerchief lay beneath him.

The shock of the murder has quickly spread throughout Rosings Park. The details are forthcoming, things are not what they seem.

Your quest: to discover who committed the murder and prove your innocence.

YOUR PLAYER'S PROFILE:

Frank Churchill

(Emma)

A handsome and charming young man who is well-liked by many and he is expected to inherit a great deal of wealth. However he is somewhat selfish and is willing to deceive others in order to get what he wants.

Costume: A regency styled coat and pants with a neck wrap "cravat".

Who committed the murder?

- Lady Catherine de Burgh.....
- Miss Elizabeth Bennet.....
- Darcy Fitzwilliam
- Marianne Dashwood.....
- John Willoughby
- Mr. Bennet
- Mrs. Bennet
- Emma Woodhouse
- Frank Churchill
- Mr. Collins