

The Murder

The body of Mr. Thorpe was discovered decapitated and stuffed in the breakfast room water closet.

A church bulletin was found in his pocket and a swatch of hair wrapped in a handkerchief lay beneath him.

The shock of the murder has quickly spread throughout Rosings Park.

The details are forthcoming, things are not what they seem.

The Murder

The body of Mr. Thorpe was discovered this afternoon decapitated and stuffed in the breakfast room water closet. The murder occurred around midnight.

A church bulletin was found in his pocket and a swatch of hair wrapped in a handkerchief lay beneath him.

The shock of the murder has quickly spread throughout Rosings Park. The details are forthcoming, things are not what they seem.

Your quest: to discover who committed the murder and prove your innocence.

YOUR PLAYER'S PROFILE:

Mr. Collins

(Pride and Prejudice)

Is a clergyman and a rather pompous and obsequious individual who is very concerned with social status and propriety. He is also rather foolish and lacking in self-awareness.

Costume: a clerical-looking suit of black which reflects his status as a clergyman and a desire to project an image of humility and piety.

Who committed the murder?

- Lady Catherine de Burgh.....
- Miss Elizabeth Bennet.....
- Darcy Fitzwilliam .....
- Marianne Dashwood.....
- John Willoughby .....
- Mr. Bennet .....
- Mrs. Bennet .....
- Emma Woodhouse .....
- Frank Churchill .....
- Mr. Collins .....