

The Murder

The body of Mr. Thorpe was discovered decapitated and stuffed in the breakfast room water closet.

A church bulletin was found in his pocket and a swatch of hair wrapped in a handkerchief lay beneath him.

The shock of the murder has quickly spread throughout Rosings Park.

The details are forthcoming, things are not what they seem.

The Murder

The body of Mr. Thorpe was discovered this afternoon decapitated and stuffed in the breakfast room water closet. The murder occurred around midnight.

A church bulletin was found in his pocket and a swatch of hair wrapped in a handkerchief lay beneath him.

The shock of the murder has quickly spread throughout Rosings Park. The details are forthcoming, things are not what they seem.

Your quest: to discover who committed the murder and prove your innocence.

YOUR PLAYER'S PROFILE:

John Willoughby

(Sense and Sensibility)

Willoughby is a handsome and charming young man who is wealthy, romantic and passionate. However he also has a dark side. He is willing to prioritize his own desires and interests over the well-being of others.

Costume: a fashionable coat and waistcoat, with a cravat tied in a particularly stylish manner.

Who committed the murder?

- Lady Catherine de Burgh.....
- Miss Elizabeth Bennet.....
- Darcy Fitzwilliam
- Marianne Dashwood.....
- John Willoughby
- Mr. Bennet
- Mrs. Bennet
- Emma Woodhouse
- Frank Churchill
- Mr. Collins