

The Murder

The body of Mr. Thorpe was discovered decapitated and stuffed in the breakfast room water closet.

A church bulletin was found in his pocket and a swatch of hair wrapped in a handkerchief lay beneath him.

The shock of the murder has quickly spread throughout Rosings Park.

The details are forthcoming, things are not what they seem.

The Murder

The body of Mr. Thorpe was discovered this afternoon decapitated and stuffed in the breakfast room water closet. The murder occurred around midnight.

A church bulletin was found in his pocket and a swatch of hair wrapped in a handkerchief lay beneath him.

The shock of the murder has quickly spread throughout Rosings Park. The details are forthcoming, things are not what they seem.

Your quest: to discover who committed the murder and prove your innocence.

YOUR PLAYER'S PROFILE:

Lady Catherine de Bourgh

(Pride and Prejudice)

Is an arrogant and domineering Lady who believes that her wealth and status entitle her to dictate the behavior of those around her. She is highly opinionated and is not afraid to express her views forcefully, even when they are unwelcome.

Costume: A fashionable woman with a very large bonnet, an outfit that is elegance, and extravagance which reflects her social status.

Who committed the murder?

- Lady Catherine de Burgh.....
- Miss Elizabeth Bennet.....
- Darcy Fitzwilliam .....
- Marianne Dashwood.....
- John Willoughby .....
- Mr. Bennet .....
- Mrs. Bennet .....
- Emma Woodhouse .....
- Frank Churchill .....
- Mr. Collins .....